DEMONSTRATION TUES. APRIL 20, 2010

LA County superior court judges have been caught deciding cases in the County's favor in exchange for being paid illegal "bonuses" of $57,000 per year (in addition to their legal state salaries of $178,000 plus apx. $30,000 in benefits), received from corrupt members of LA County's Board of Supervisors. After they were sued, palms were greased and legislation was secretly passed (Senate Bill SBX2-11) to try to protect them and make it seem as if they had been given retroactive immunity from prosecution.

Taxpayer advocate and attorney Richard I. Fine was the first to catch on, and his principled stand has literally cost him everything. Meanwhile, the farce has escalated to the point that judges are taking over cases in which they are parties and dismissing those cases against themselves. Surely this riotous tragi-comedy will end soon, as the dike is springing leaks like mad and there aren't nearly enough fingers to plug all the holes.)

PROTEST RALLIES - TUESDAY, April 20th, 9-11am Pacific (12-2pm Eastern) on steps of LA Superior Court, and from 11-1pm Eastern on the steps of the US Supreme Court in Washington, D.C.
